

Jason Card

Vice President, External Affairs, Chamber of Marine Commerce

Jason Card is a government and public affairs professional with more than 20 years of experience across the public and private sectors, specializing in public / government / media relations, marketing, and stakeholder engagement. During his time with the Chamber of Marine Commerce, he has worked with his colleagues to significantly expand media reach by 8x, advance advocacy on trade, investment, and regulatory matters, and increase member engagement while also increasing the number of member organizations.

Previously he served more than a decade with the Government of Newfoundland and Labrador, including as Director of Communications for the Office of The Premier, and has also led communications, sustainability, and regulatory affairs initiatives for several years in the seafood industry in corporate, academic, and industry association capacities.